As I am sure you are all aware, this year will soon come to an end, and 2026 will be upon us. The words of James 4:14 say, "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away," seem more evident to me this year than ever before. When the Lord began to burden my heart for the area of Las Vegas and Clark County, Nevada over three years ago, I was unsure of where to begin or how my family would ever get there, but I knew it was the Lord's will. When we began deputation three months ago, I still had questions. However, as I look back at what God has provided for us in just these last three months, I realize He has provided exceedingly abundantly above all I could ask or think.

I have been reminded once again that there are no better people than God's people. In these first three months, we have seen over ten percent of our support come in, but far more than that, we have experienced the love and support of God's people in ways I did not know were possible. Meetings have been booked and financial support has been raised, but beyond the finances, we continue to see an ever-growing support network of pastors and laymen alike who are praying for us and helping in ways they may never fully know. Please know that no matter how small it may seem to you, your support of the Glover family in any capacity has not gone unnoticed.

As this year comes to a close, our burden to reach Clark County, Nevada— and the 2.3 million souls who live there- with the Gospel has only grown stronger. In the month of December, we have taken a couple of significant steps on the home front to help us reach the mission field as quickly as possible. We sold our home without ever placing it on the market and have both stepped down from our full-time jobs. These decisions were not made lightly, but in faith and obedience to the Lord's will for our family.

We thank you all for your continued prayers and support as we transition into full-time deputation. Please pray that the Lord will continue to open doors for us to share our burden for Nevada in local churches, and that we may also have opportunities to share the Gospel and see souls saved. We also remain in prayer that the Lord would continue to bring forth laborers.

Laborers together for Christ,
Brian Glover & Family
